I'd like to talk about/I want to talk about A trip I took to Saint Martin's island two weeks ago/not so long ago. Saint Martin's Island is a beautiful island in southern Bangladesh. I visited the island with my friends from university for our annual university tour. The island has stunning azure waters, clear blue skies, and mouthwatering local food. There are endless varieties of fishes that are cooked with local spices, and we tried almost every one of them. We also had a chance to visit Chera Dwip, a neighbouring island, and took some amazing pictures there!
